

You are looking for an adventure abroad?

Come study at LMU Munich as an exchange student

 The Ludwig-Maximilians-University München (LMU Munich) is situated in the beautiful city of Munich, the capital city of Bavaria, Germany. You may know the city as home of the famous „Oktoberfest“.

 But the city has so much more to offer: Relaxing at river banks in the sun, meeting friends in world-famous museums or traveling to the Alps? All this is possible while you're on exchange in Munich!

 LMU Munich is definitely the perfect exchange university if you want to learn from the best. It is among the highest-ranked universities in Germany and Europe!

 Additionally, you can not only take courses in your major / minor but also take 40 per cent of your chosen courses in up to two other subject areas. Benefit academically from this interdisciplinary opportunity!

 Also, no prior knowledge in German needed! LMU Munich offers a wide range of English taught courses in many subject areas.

Take a closer look at LMU Munich and our exchange programs on our website www.lmu.de/en/international/incoming and on our Instagram accounts @lmu.muenchen and @lmuincoming

We look forward to seeing you soon!