

European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists

CALL FOR PAPERS

53rd Seminar of the European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists

(<http://www.egrie.org>)

Rennes (France), September 20 – 23, 2026

The 53rd Seminar of the European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists (EGRIE) will take place at the Maison des Sciences de l'Homme en Bretagne in Rennes (France) on September 20 – 23, 2026. Christoph Heinzl is the local organizer. On the occasion of the seminar, Mike Hoy will deliver the 38th Geneva Risk Economics Lecture. The seminar is supported by the Geneva Association.

The scientific program committee for this meeting is comprised of Andreas Richter (chair), Loïc Berger and Franca Glenzer.

Additionally, this year a special colloquium on “Transformative Challenges in Agricultural Insurance”, associated with a special issue of the *Geneva Risk and Insurance Review, will be held following the seminar. Refer to the separate call for papers for more information. Attendance at the colloquium will be free of charge for EGRIE participants.

Submission Process

Papers can be on any topic in Economics, Finance or Management Science that relates to risk and insurance. Completed papers or detailed abstracts should be submitted by April 15, 2026. Please upload your document in PDF format via the submission website. If you have any questions or difficulties uploading your document, please contact Kerry McCabe. Decisions will be communicated by the end of May 2026.

When submitting to EGRIE, authors have the opportunity to be considered for the additional colloquium as well as the associated publication should they want to be. As such, authors will be able to indicate on the submission website whether they would like to apply only to EGRIE, to EGRIE but potentially be considered for the colloquium, or to the colloquium only. In the two latter cases, the paper will also be considered for the GRIR special issue.